STATEMENT OF PRESIDENT MACRON WHO STANDS WITH THE BRITISH PEOPLE AND AUTHORITIES

The attack that struck London that night, a few days after that of Manchester, is another abominable and cowardly attack against our free societies. Mr Emmanuel MACRON, President of the Republic, addresses to the victims, their families and loved ones, his most sincere thoughts at this painful moment. He addresses the solidarity of France to the British people, who will continue to fight terrorism alongside the United Kingdom and all the countries concerned. French citizens are among the victims. France is making every effort to assist them. This Sunday is also held the first round of the legislative elections for our fellow citizens residing abroad. In conjunction with the British authorities, security measures will be strengthened in London so that civic mobilization can show the strength of democracy against the enemies of freedom. The President of the Republic is in contact with the British authorities and keeps himself informed of developments in the situation and the elements of the investigation. Source : Elysee
